Representations by Members

SRI A. LAKSHMI SAGAR.—Sir, my submission is...

MR. DEPUTY SPEAKER.—I will hear you afterwards. Let us finish the question hour.

SRI A. LAKSHMI SAGAR.—Sir, question hour has been there. The other subjects have also been set down for the day. I understand...

SRI G. K. TAKKED.—Sir,...

SRI A. LAKSHMI SAGAR.—Sir, why does he not listen? Sir, we are facing a very difficult and serious situation wherein it may be impossible for us to sit and transact business here.

SRI M. VEERAPPA MOILY.—On a point of order...

SRI A. LAKSHMI SAGAR.—Sir, I have not said anything; what is the point of order?

SRI K. RAMESH KUMAR.—There is no order outside,

SRI MICHAEL FERNANDEZ —Outside you are going to kill workers and you are talking about point of order here. Total disorder is prevailing in the Capital City of the State. What is the point of order here?

SRI JEEVARAJ ALVA.—What is that point of order?

SRI A. LAKSHMI SAGAR.—There must be order outside first and not here. When there is total anarchy outside, there cannot be order here.

SRI K. RAMESH KUMAR.—When there is disorder outside, you cannot expect us to sit in order inside.

MR. DEPUTY SPEAKER.—Please resume your seats. I have called the Hon. Finance Minister to speak. He is on his legs.
